(on hearing the news of
em ma rose kildonworth's birth

beginning was not without
all could not exist without
all brought into the

a place "and"
"and" am ("aleph") - first letter
"apple"

"ah"

origin"al beginning
choice &
sharing of life

joy of beginning of voice
propagation of language cre ate
double sounded
(The legacy of abuse)

forces tightening and forcing his role to speak for the role of others

calling out their names & admitting to the accusations

& forcing them to submit rather than "compel them" that the sounds of the others...

"ident"ity & self

grouped w"ith you
("i am always grouped w"ith you"
"
and t"ight – selfcentered
screams "its own name out loud"
"ignant
wh"ile

there "is too much "i" (ask bp n"ichol)
certainly there is too much "i"

lower reta"ins the head and
im"ind of thot

"i"
"is a p"illar refus"ing to
g"ive
(empty and unknown)

great sense "of"

"opened t'o the p'ossibilities f'ound in strange places

and yet surprised that they happened at all.
Along the lines of zero

and the h'o'ok "of new ideas
"(happiness of finding & push of though)

"u watch and learn as it goes &
worthut
feels the i's of others

needed &
extpectations
always the

expectations

yet not here

(withot "u
"i co"uld only...)

yes.
"i will."
"a book of vowels

published in canada by:

house press
apt. # 603 - 13th ave sw
calgary alberta
 canada
 T2R 0K3
phone: 403-234-0336
fax: 403-734-7463
housepre@cadvision.com
cfthomps@cadvision.com

"a book of vowels was composed using Microsoft Word 6.0c & Word '97. Each copy is handbound with upholstery thread & hemp twine. Covers are handprinted "pastelle" artstock produced in a limited edition of 15 signed & numbered copies (13, 2, & 1 unnumbered archive & review copies). this is copy:

9 / 15

Derek Beaulieu
98